

Finding your next book just got easier.

Library

Catalog now on Google

Search

Your Favorite Title

Now on Google!

Searching the library catalog just got easier. Use your favorite search engine like Google, Bing, or Yahoo, to find library titles right in your browser. Here's how you do it:

Go to your favorite search engine.

Type the title of the item you want, like The Tempest by Shakespeare

Wait! Don't submit your search yet. Enter

So our search would look like this

Now look. We're right there in your search results!

And when you click on your library result it will take you straight into our website where you can put your item on hold. Give it a try. Search for books, ebooks, movies, cds, magazines, and more!

To learn more visit