5 Must-Dos to Maximize Your Discovery Experience

1

Go All-in On Mobile

This is where you'll find your users

Global Mobile vs Desktop vs Tablet Usage

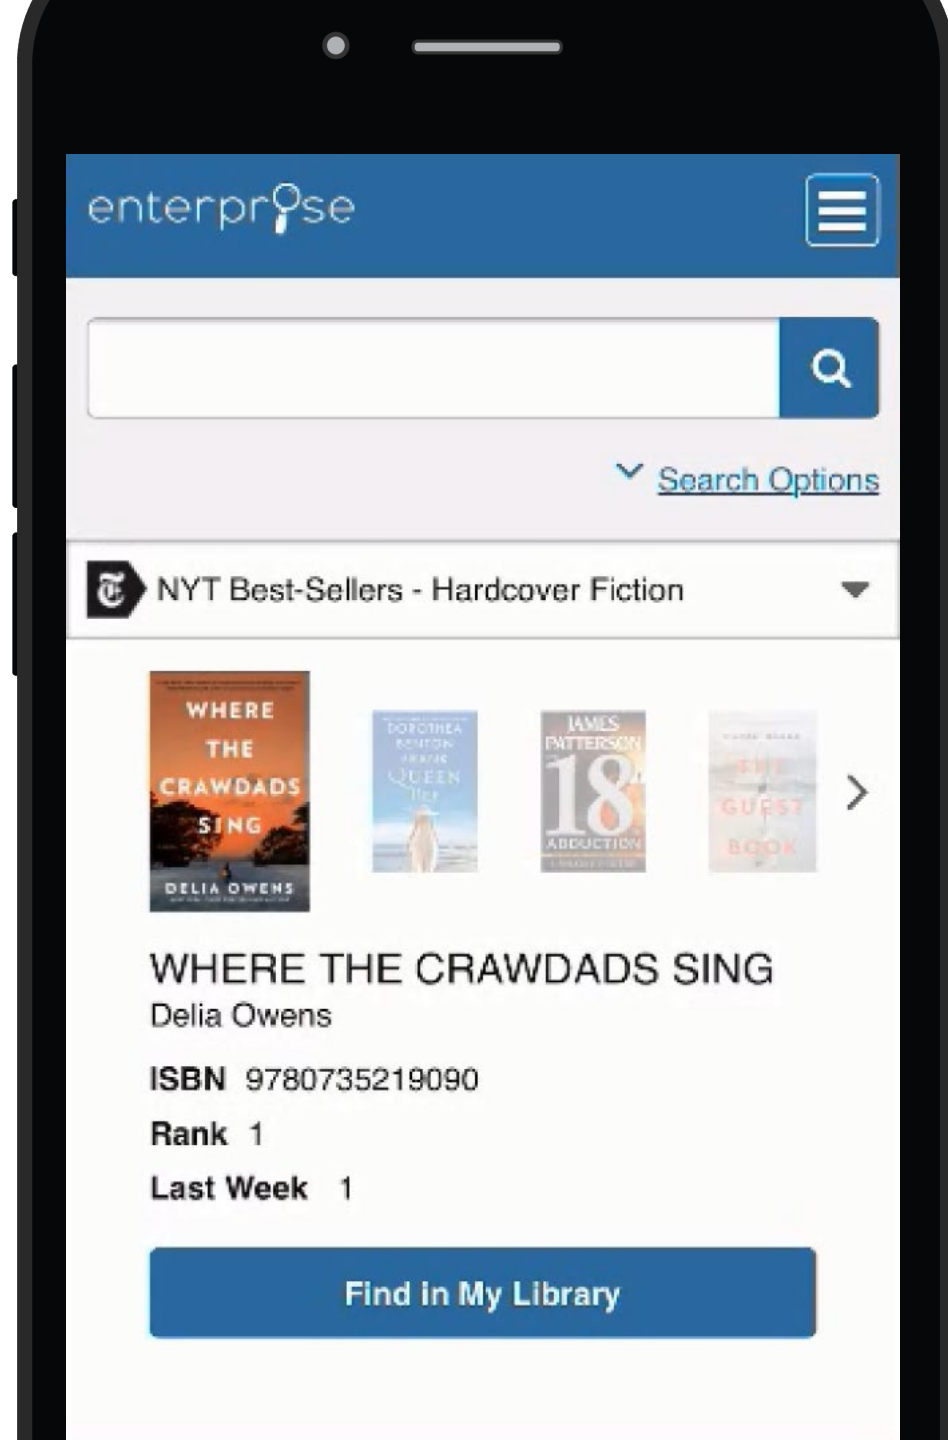

Mobile Browser

Casual users will prefer to use a responsive website

Give the frequent/power users the option of opening/downloading the app instead

Brand it to your library with your unique content

Don't dumb it down—it should be fully functional

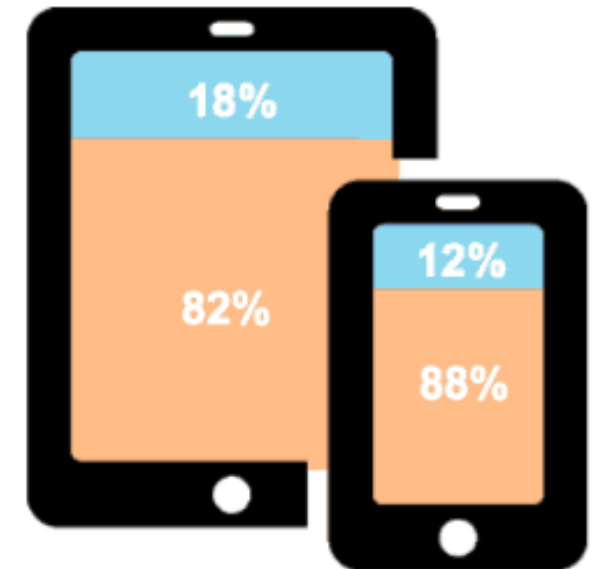

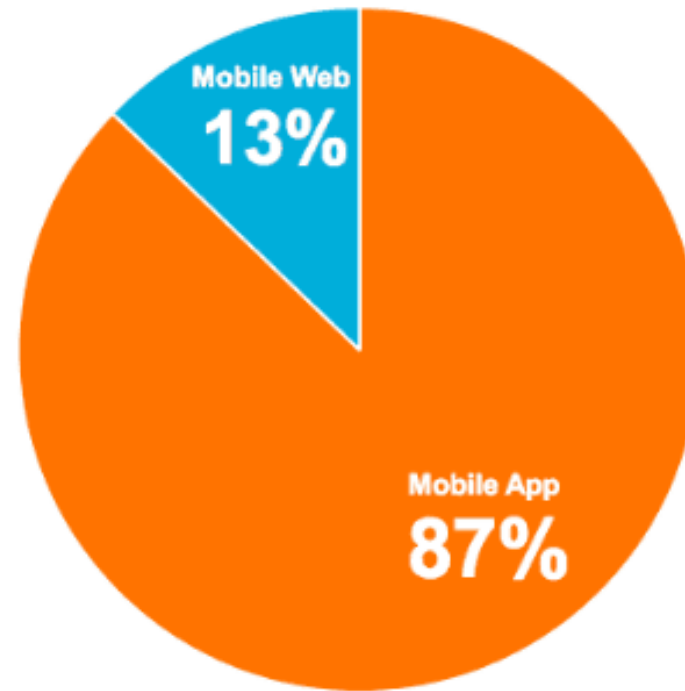

Mobile Web vs Mobile App

Mobile users are spending 87 percent of their time in apps, versus just 13 percent on the web.

Share of Time Spent on Mobile: App vs. Web

Source: comScore Mobile Metrix, U.S., Age 18+, June 2017

Mobile App

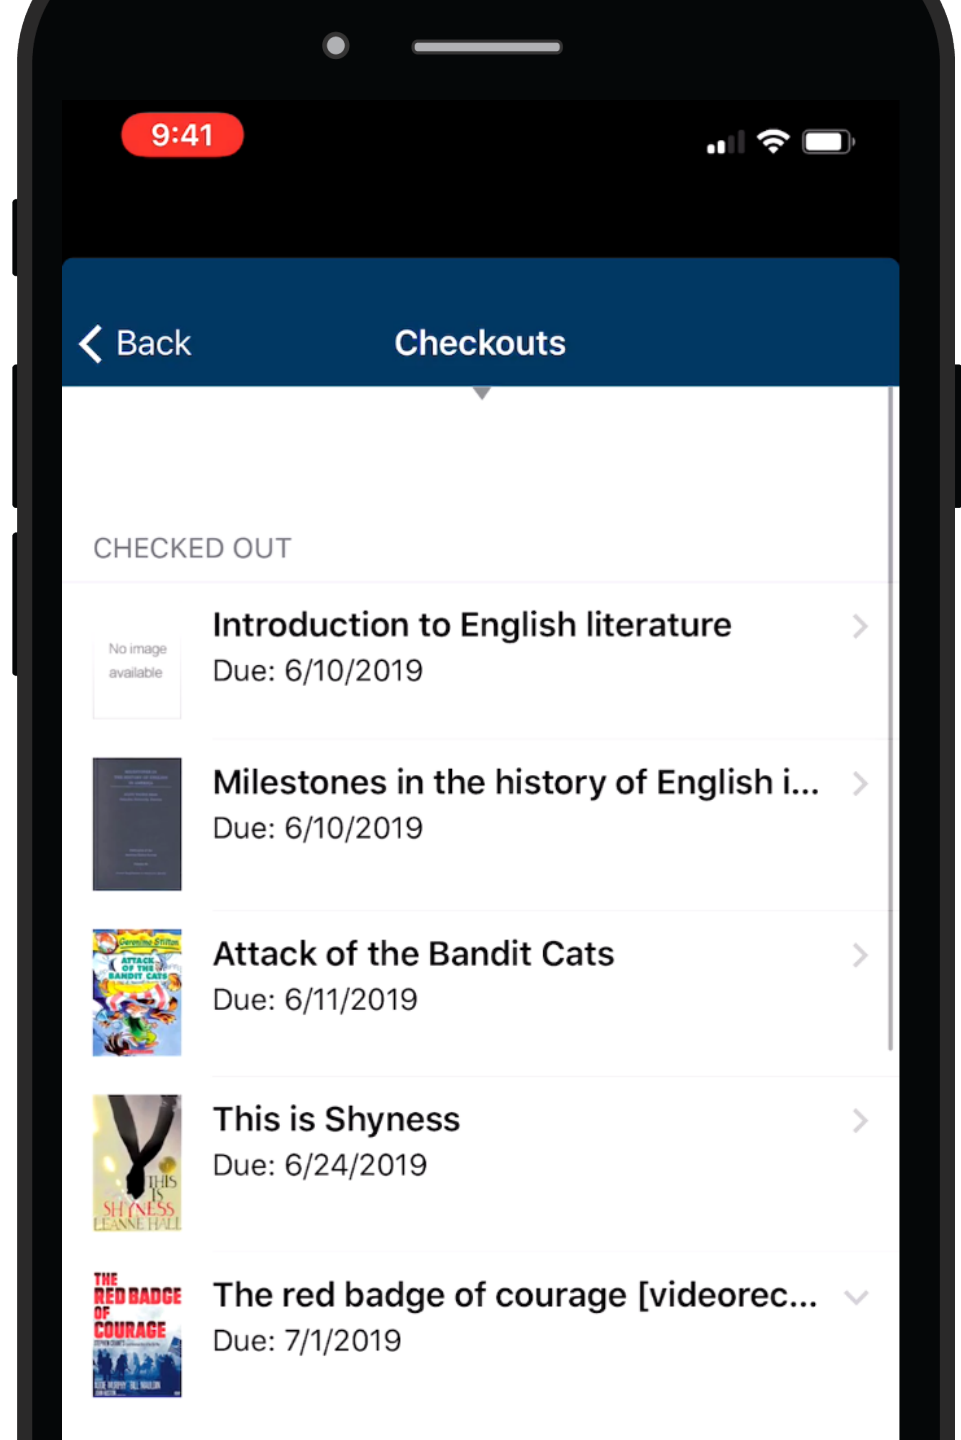

Brand it to your library

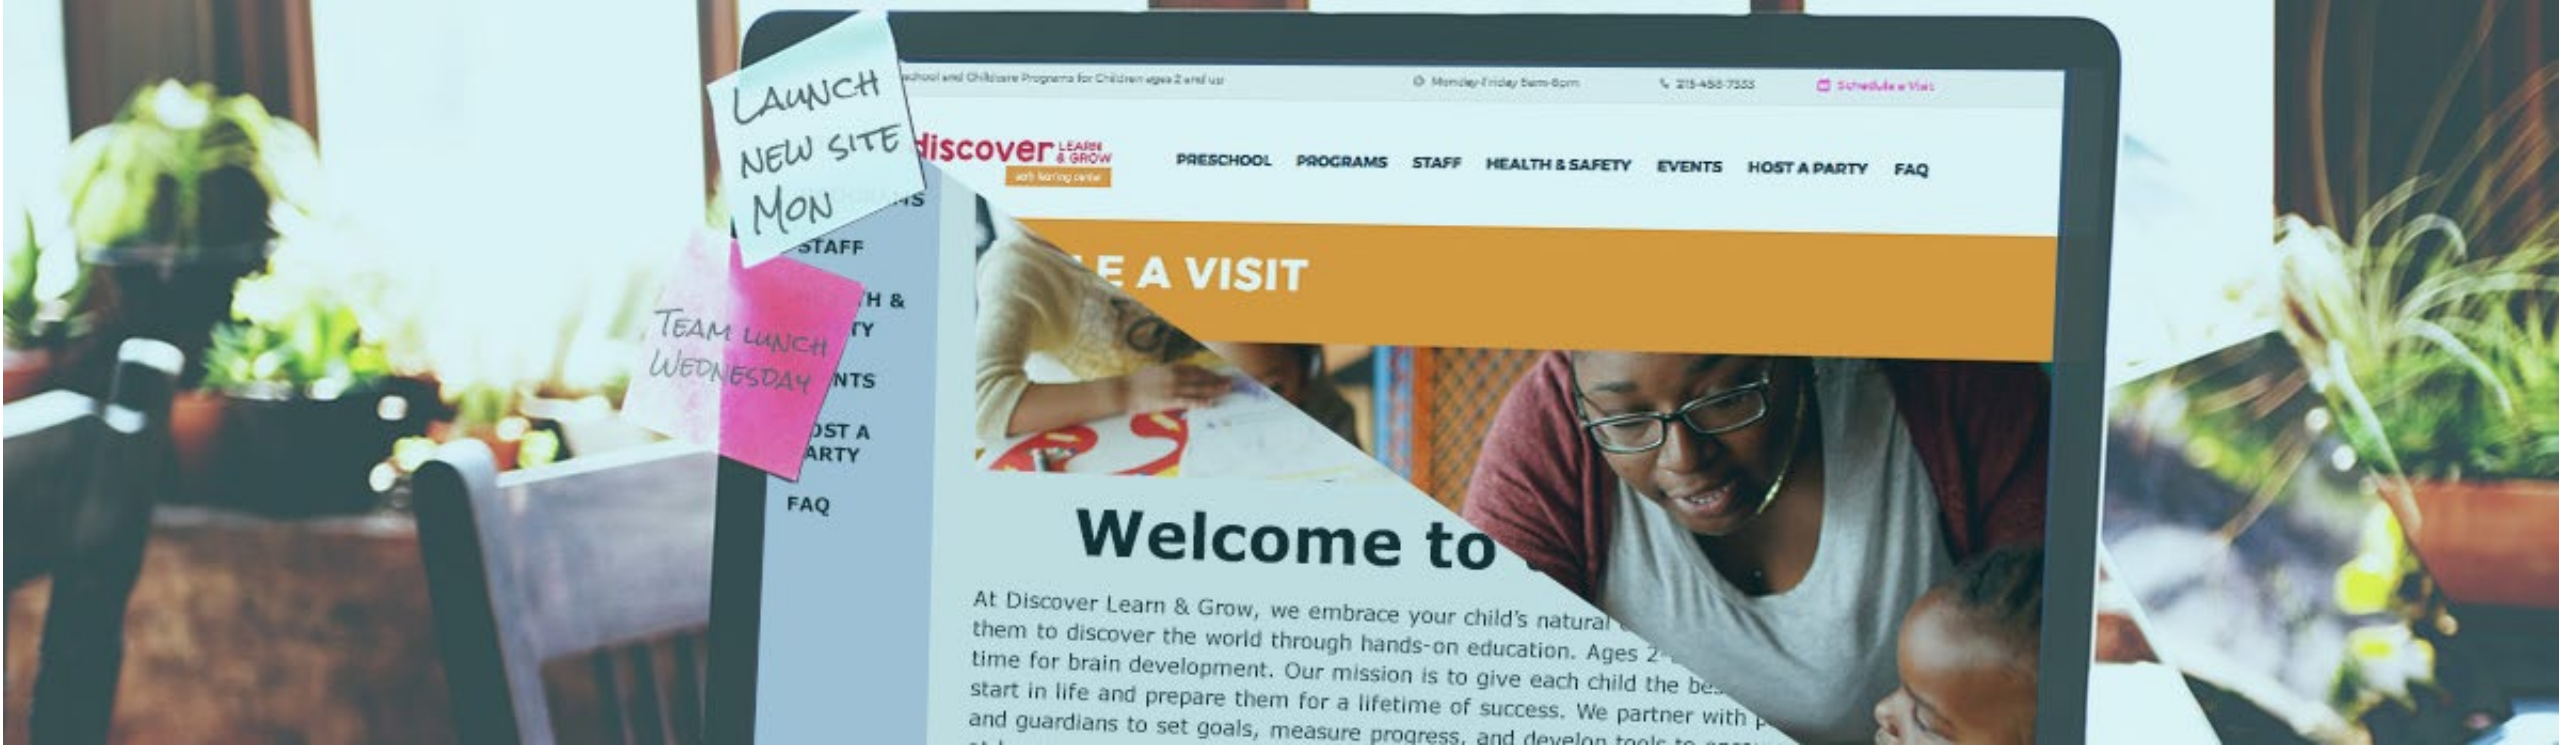

Include enough unique features to make it worth the download, e.g.:

Self Service

Beacons

Virtual Library Card

2

Give Your Discovery a Makeover

Your library is unique, and your discovery should reflect that

The screenshot shows the Enterprise library website interface. At the top, the 'enterprise' logo is on the left, and navigation links for 'Log In', 'My Account', 'My Lists', and 'Library Information' are on the right. Below this is a search bar with a home icon, dropdown menus for 'Everything' and 'All Fields', a search input field, a 'SEARCH' button, and a link to 'Advanced Search'. The main content area features a blue header for 'NYT Best-Sellers - Combined Hardcover & Paperback Fiction'. The featured book is 'Whiskey Beach' by Nora Roberts, with a cover image showing a sunset over a beach. To the right of the cover, the title 'WHISKEY BEACH' is displayed in bold, followed by the author 'Nora Roberts', the ISBN '9780399159893', and the rank 'Rank (Last Week): 2 (Not Ranked)'. Below the book information are two buttons: 'Buy It Now' and 'Find in My Library'. At the bottom, a horizontal carousel displays five book covers: 'The Hill' by David Baldacci, 'Whiskey Beach' by Nora Roberts, 'Fly Away' by Bridget Hannah, 'Paris' by Edward Strzembowski, and 'Kate Atkinson' by Kate Atkinson.

The screenshot displays the 'enterprise' library website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'Log In', 'My Account', 'My Lists', 'Send a Request', 'Library Information', and 'Select Language'. Below this is a search bar with a home icon, a dropdown menu set to 'Everything', another dropdown set to 'All Fields', a green 'SEARCH' button, and a link to 'Advanced Search'. The main content area features a banner for '25 Events Found | View All Events'. Below the banner are four event cards: 'Pre-K Discovery' (July 09, 10:00-11:00), 'Library Closed' (July 04-05), 'Caregiver University' (July 02, 11:30-13:00), and a partially visible 'Summer Children's' event. Each card includes the event name, date and time, location (Bedford Public Library), and options to 'View Details', 'Add to Calendar', and 'RSVP'. To the left of the event cards is a 'PUB' sidebar with categories like 'Careers and Information', 'Databases', 'Health and Fitness', 'Browse Lists', and 'Author Alerts'. Below the sidebar is a 'Library Hours' section with a classical building icon and a table showing hours for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. The central part of the page features a 'NYT Best-Sellers - Combined Print & E-Book Fiction' section with a book cover for 'The Tattooist of Auschwitz' by Heather Morris, its title, author, ISBN, and rank, along with a 'Find in My Library' button. At the bottom of this section is a carousel of other book covers. On the right side, there is a 'Library Events' calendar for 'Jun 9 - 15, 2019', listing events for Tuesday (June 11), Wednesday (June 12), and Thursday (June 13), such as 'Pre-K Discovery: Sharks and Mermaids' and 'Caregiver University: Positive Physical Approach (Part One)'. The bottom of the page has navigation arrows.

Thank You!
